Who Will Feed Our Hungriest Neighbors This Thanksgiving?

Thanksgiving may be months away, but at The Salvation Army, we're already preparing for the many neighbors who will turn to us for food and assistance. And with everything that's happened this year, we expect many more requests for food from families in need.

We recently sent you a series of Thanksgiving Meal Tickets in the mail. Have you received them yet? Those tickets, along with your generous gift, will provide food to hungry neighbors this Thanksgiving and beyond.

But you don't need to wait-you can give right now with the ticket below and rush help to neighbors in need!

Share Your Blessings Now

<First Name>, your gift will give your neighbors in <City Name> a reason to feel thankful — and let them know there are people right in their own community who care about them. Thank you so much!

When a neighbor who is struggling turns to us in need, food is most often the very first thing they ask for.
